Will Change the Steps.

We understand that the Court House Building Committee has decided to change the front steps of the building. We trust our information is correct, for the ladder that you have to climb at present to reach the front door is something awful. The suggestion of two entrances from Main street to the yard is a good one, and we believe would make a beautiful approach to the building.

Wholesale Arrests.

E. L. Spears & Sons' hemp hatching house, on South Main, was the scene of exciting times for awhile, Wednesday morning, when Deputy Sheriffs Letton and Burke, Constable Joe Williams and Jailer Judy appeared to make several arrests among the numerous hacklers. On Monday night, in Claysville, William Smith was assaulted and actually cut into doll rags, from his appearance now, by the following colored brothers: Lawson Jenkins, Nelson Mason, Sam Williams, Chas. Johnson, Jim Graham, Geo. Mason and Wm. Crawford, each taking a slash at William. After the officers made one or two arrests at the hemp house the rest of the gang began to disappear under the hemp, and it was difficult to find them. Jailer Judy, however, secured a pitchfork and after making several lunges with it into the pile of hemp, landing at the right spot, every one of them crawled from under cover and taken to jail. The whole crowd of them are Lexington negroes, except Smith, the one so badly disfigured.

The defendants bond were fixed at $1,000 each, and their examining trial set for April 27th before Judge H. C. Smith.

The Sidewalks.

The attention of the Mayor and Council is again called to the condition of some of the pavements on Main street which have not been made to conform to the new grade established in the paving of that street. In some places the sidewalks are six to ten inches lower than the curbing and pedestrians on Main are required to step over these curbing at the crossings of the side streets. It is like stretching a wire across the pavements to trip passers-by, and any night when the lights happen to go out some one is liable to fall over these mantraps and then the city will be defendant in a suit for damages. We said nothing about this during the winter because that is not the time to lay sidewalks, but these pavements should be ordered relaid now. But before doing that, the Council should pass an ordinance requiring all pavements to be laid in cement. We are spending a good deal of money building streets, which is all right and proper, but not even good streets are so essential to the beautifying and improvement of a town as good sidewalks. Therefore let us take the one step necessary to get good sidewalks by passing an ordinance requiring that all pavements shall be laid in cement according to fixed specifications, and then order the Main street sidewalks relaid wherever necessary.

Herald Lands a Good One.

Mr. Charles I. Stewart, formerly of Louisville and more recently of Philadelphia, has been added to the staff of the Lexington Herald. Mr. Stewart resigned an important and responsible position on the Philadelphia Ledger to accept a place with the Herald, and not only is the Herald to be congratulated but the press of Kentucky on the return of Mr. Stewart to work in our State. He is an able and progressive newspaper man, and will win for himself the respect, confidence and esteem of all those who come in contact with him. We give you a hearty welcome on your return to Old Kentucky, Mr. Stewart, and again congratulate the enterprising Herald in going after and landing such men for members of its staff.

A Senator Pensioned.

A few weeks ago a bill passed the house of representatives increasing the pension of one Edmund G. Ross from $12 to $20 per month. It is safe to say not one man out of a thousand in this country ever heard of Edmund G. Ross. Yet he was once a Senator of the United States and voted against the impeachment of Andrew Johnson. During the war he was an officer in a Kansas regiment, but of late years he has been in poverty and has worked at the printer's trade in New Mexico. Truly the career of politics is an uncertain one. One succeeds where many fail.

What Do You Think of This?

Over at Lexington the Herald stated that two deputy sheriffs were aiding the Hargises in their trial. Sheriff Wilkerson asked Col. Bronston if it were true, and the reply was: "Those statements are true. Two of your deputies have been active in assisting the defense. We can produce jurors to whom your deputies have talked."

What's It To You?

Miss Susan B. Anthony, still a blushing maid at eighty-five, favors divorce as a refuge from designing and brutal men. But marriage must precede divorce, and as Miss Anthony up to this time has eschewed that relation of life it is hardly probable that she will ever have to seek refuge from its possible infelicitities.

It's a Shame to Slight Him.

It is regretted that the name of William Sylvester Indiana Taylor does not appear among those of former Governors who are "coming to Kentucky to defend Caleb Powers."

Caused Considerable Excitement.

On Wednesday evening, about 8 o'clock, some small boys tied the whistle down on the city roller that had been left standing on Pleasant, between Third and Fourth, and the blasts caused considerable excitement among the people in that neighborhood. One lady ran down to Main street, nearly frightened to death, thinking the machine was going to bust. With a little effort these mischievous youngsters can be found out, as they were seen by several. The devilment of these little shavers, who should be at home studying their lessons, is becoming quite a nuisance to our citizens, as a number have told us they are worse this year than ever before. If there ever was a town on earth that needs a Curfew ordinance, Paris is that town.

DEATHS.

—Mr. John Stoker, aged 88 years, died at his home in Ruddled Mills, yesterday about noon, of paralysis. He was stricken with this fatal disease several weeks ago and was never any better, having a second attack a few days since.

"Uncle John," as he was familiarly called, made Paris his home for a number of years and had many friends, who enjoyed being in his company. He had a keen sense of the ridiculous and no one enjoyed a good joke more than he did. He was a clever and honorable man.

He was the father of Mrs. Nellie Stoker Highland, of this city, the only child left of a large family of children, who was with him when he died. His remains were brought to her residence, on Duncan avenue, late yesterday afternoon.

Funeral services will be held at the residence of Mrs. Nellie Highland, on Duncan Avenue, Saturday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, Rev. Mr. Caswell of the Episcopal Church, officiating. No flowers. Pall-bearers: Dr. Arthur Keller, Doc, Snapp, Kirby Denton, John Current, Nathan Goodman and A. T. Forsyth.

—Mr. E. E. Elrod, aged about 35 years, died at his home, on Higgins avenue, early Wednesday morning, of Bright's disease. Mr. Elrod was an honest, industrious young man. He is survived by his wife and one small child. His funeral was held yesterday afternoon, services conducted by Eld. J. S. Sweeney, assisted by Rev. J. L. Clark. Burial in Paris cemetery by Bourbon Lodge of I. O. O. F., he being a prominent member of that order.

—James P. Rogers, aged 52 years, died of heart disease at St. Joseph Hospital, Lexington, Tuesday night. Mr. Rogers had for a number of years been employed in the Government service as storekeeper and was located at Midway. He was well-known in this city and at Millersburg, where he made his home for a number of years. He is survived by a sister and brother, Miss Mary Rogers and John C. Rogers, of Lexington.

—Samuel R. Boyd, aged 40 years, was found dead in his bed at Cynthia, Tuesday morning. He had just returned from a business trip to Louisville. W. J. Bryan lectured at Williams-

John Alexander Dowie, of Chicago, has closed negotiations and obtained options on a tract of two million acres of land in the State of Tama-tupas, where he proposes to found a new Zion City. The property to be bought is probably the Lopez ranch.

Information received at Tokio is taken to indicate that the Russian squadron proposes to remain at Kamranh Bay until May 7. In the meantime, it is understood, Admiral Ro-jestvensky will send out cruisers to overhaul merchantmen along the trade to the Straits of Formosa. The Japanese Government continues to preserve silence in regard to any representations that may have been made to France in the matter. The press, however, is continuing its protests and urging that vigorous and speedy action be taken. A dispatch from Harbin says that Chinese bandits made a determined attempt on the night of April 17 to cut the railroad between Harbin and Vladivostok.
After a desperate fight of several hours the bandits were driven away.

A Splendid Field.

Among the famous races which will be run at Lexington during the spring meeting, May 3rd to 9th, perhaps the most interesting is the Distillers Handicap which comes on Monday, May 7th, for which the best field of handicap horses will start that ever contested a stake in the West or South.
Broomstick, winner of the Brighton Handicap last year and the holder of the world's record for a mile and a quarter, Alan-a-Dale, the horse entitled to the present world's record at a mile, Colonial Girl, winner of the fifty thousand dollar World's Fair Handicap last year, English Lad, the best three-year-old in the West last year, Woodson and Rapid Water, respectively second and third in the American Derby last year, McChesney considered two years ago, with Waterboy, the best horse in America, Dick Wells, holder of the world's record at a mile, Bad News, second in the Saratoga Handicap last year, Wit-ful, Dalvay, First Mason, Six Shooter, Burleigh, Prince Silverwings and a number of others scarcely less famous are all eligible to this great stake.
But splendid as is this list, it does not out-class the fields eligible to the other stakes during the Lexington meeting.
That meeting promises to be, from every standpoint, the best race meeting ever held in the South, and the people in central Kentucky will doubtless lend its large patronage. Reduced rates will be offered on all railroads.

He Didn't Resign.

At Mt. Sterling, Monday, Circuit Judge Allie Young stated that word had come to him that he was being severely criticised for overstepping the law to protect his friends against just punishment and in prosecuting persons not to his liking, and that he had been threatened with personal violence. He said he did not fear personal violence, but if the members of the bar did not have confidence in him he would resign. Several members of the bar made speeches declaring their faith in Judge Young's justness and fairness. He did not resign.

Contest Closes April 24th.

The contest inaugurated by the Lexington Herald as to what two of Kentucky's sons should be honored by having their statues placed in the Hall of Statuary will close on Saturday, April 29th.

In this contest The Herald offered $25 in four prizes—one of $10, one of $7.50, one of $5, one of $2.50—to those students in Kentucky colleges or public schools who name the two men who are selected by the majority of all those not students who express an opinion as to what two men should be so honored. The purpose of The Herald in inaugurating this contest and in offering these prizes was to arouse interest in the study of the lives of Kentucky's dead sons who served well their country and reflected honor on their State.

Everyone who sends in a selection shall give the reasons why, in his judgment, the two men he names should be honored above other distinguished dead.

No selection will be considered in determining the result of the contest which is not received by the 29th, of April and the prizes will be awarded to those who make first selections.

An Important Decision.

The Court of Appeals held that it is not in violation of the Constitution to inflict labor penalties upon persons convicted of misdemeanors. It held, however, that Section 3148 and that part of Section 3147 of the Kentucky Statutes which gives to Police Courts jurisdiction in excess of the penalty of one hundred dollars fine and fifty days imprisonment, are void, being in violation of the State constitution.

Lexington Banks Sued.

The seven National Banks of Lexington have been sued for alleged omitted back taxes on personal property aggregating $3,937,915.

The suits were filed in the Fayette County Clerk's office by Attorney C. J. Bronston, representing Revenue Agent A. M. Harrison for the State at large. Each bank is sued together with its President and Cashier as co-defendants. The allegation is made that these officers failed to list for taxation the whole of the banks' personality for the years of 1901, 1902, 1903 and 1904, and credits for what they did list are given as against what the alleged true assessment should have been.

Judge Paynter for the Senate.

Judge Thomas Paynter, of the Court of Appeals has announced himself as a candidate for the United States Senate to succeed Senator J. C. S. Blackburn. Judge Paynter is a very clever man and personally we like him very much, but the Democrats of Kentucky are not likely to elect him to the highest office in their gift, because he is clever, as the term is used in an American sense. They will naturally ask: What is his especial fitness and qualification for this high position and in what respect would he add honor and distinction to Kentucky and the Democratic party over Joe Blackburn? Judge Paynter served several terms in the Lower House of Congress, when the Democratic party was in the majority. He was not distinguished in the councils of his party at that time. He made no notable speech, he was in no sense regarded as a leader. In fact so little did he accomplish that most of the people of the State outside of his district are unaware that he was ever in Congress. The truth of the matter is that he occupied a position of mediocrity in the Kentucky delegation, being clearly outranked by Breckinridge, McCreary, Montgomery, Ellis and Goodnight. When Jo Blackburn served in the House he was easily regarded a conspicuous leader, and so pronounced was his leadership and ability recognized that he was only defeated for the Speakership by Sam Randall by a few votes, and these few votes would have been the other way but for the fact that Blackburn was a Confederate soldier.

Judge Paynter has served about ten years upon the Appellate bench, yet he is not regarded as a particular shining legal luminary. Several of his associates now serving with him, and, who served with him during this first time, ranked far ahead of him according to the estimate of the leading men of his own profession.

In the United States Senate, Blackburn occupies a conspicuous place. He is considered to be one of the leaders on the Democratic side. He has a national reputation and a personal popularity unsurpassed by any other Senator of either political party. Judging from Judge Paynter's record in the House and upon the Court of Appeals, it is plainly evident to thinking men that he could not attain either the influence or the position that Senator Blackburn wields and holds.

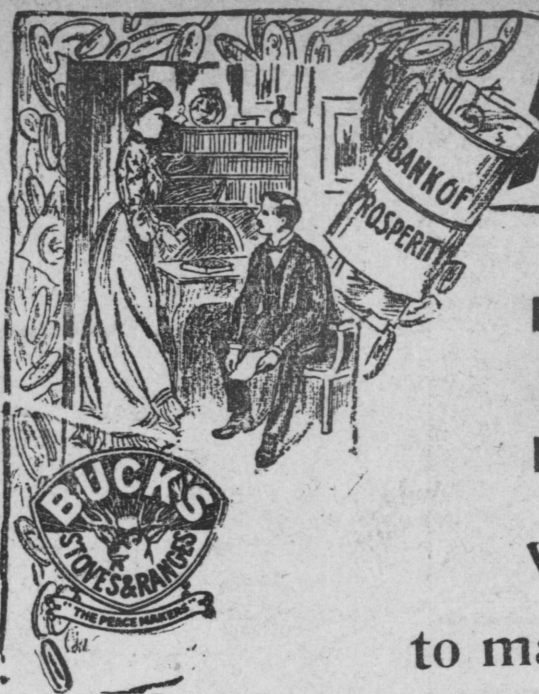

As an orator no man in Kentucky since the death of Breckinridge can be put in the class with Joe Blackburn, certainly not Judge Paynter, who in this does not rise above mediocrity among Kentucky speakers.

In party service Judge Paynter certainly has no claim worthy to be compared to those of Kentucky's senior Senator. As far as we know the Judge has never raised his voice for Democracy outside of his own bailiwick and is absolutely unknown to the rank and file of Democracy in most of the State while Joe Blackburn is known from Big Sandy to Mills Pond. For twenty years he has spoken for Democracy in every campaign, and he is personally known to more Kentuckians than any other man in the State. It should not be forgotten that it was Joe Blackburn as late as 1899, who secured a hearing for Gov. Goebel in Western Kentucky, when the party was in revolt against the Music Hall convention and turned the tide, which prevented a disastrous defeat.

We do not believe that Judge Paynter would have become a candidate for the Senate but for the urgency and persistency of a certain clique of office holders who are bent on accomplishing the defeat of Blackburn, because the Senator has dared to oppose them and their methods. We are sorry indeed that Judge Paynter has permitted himself to be put in a campaign with no real reason in point of fitness or party service, why he should succeed Senator Blackburn and with the only hope of success resting upon the ability of the administration to use the offices and the patronage pertaining thereto to influence the Legislature. This will be done not for the purpose of elevating Kentucky's reputation in the United States Senate, not for the purpose of gratifying Judge Paynter's ambition, but for the sole purpose of satisfying the revenge of a lot of small politicians. We do not believe that the Democracy of Kentucky will countenance or give aid to this kind of peanut politics.—Elizabethtown News.
